

RA PROGRAMME

European YWCA Study Session in Budapest

In March Brittany, Bethany and I travelled to Budapest for 5 days for a study session on the topic of leading change for young women migrants and refugees, a current issue which we are all very passionate about.

Talks

We had talks and from Gordana Berjan, the executive director of the council of Europe who runs the European Youth Centre in which we were staying in.

Reka Safrany from the Hungarian Women's Lobby about gender equality in Hungary.

Olga Franczak, one of the participants about "Unconscious Bias".

Marcia Banasko, "One Love Soul" project, works with refugee and roma communities.

Activities

Interactive presentations about various topics; European YWCA history, refugee camp in Yemen, Council of Europe.

Art therapy workshop on “movement”.

Dance workshop.

Role play, had to pretend to welcome in refugees.

The Point

We used everything we learnt over the 5 days to come up with 5 recommendations for YWCA's around Europe in helping migrant and refugee women, should be published shortly.
